

Table of content

Chapter I: The Comitology Reform: a revolution, not an evolution4

- 1. The deep reform of comitology requires a completely new book..... 5
- 2. A major revision adopted in secrecy 6
- 3. The comitology reform is a major event entailing 3 far-reaching consequences..... 6

Chapter II: Execution measures and comitology: historical evolution8

- 1. The Single European Act creates the need for comitology 9
- 2. The execution powers delegated to the Commission by the Council..... 10
- 3. Some examples of execution measures 11
- 4. Comitology: a “factory” for technical regulations 13

Chapter III: The Comitology reforms of 1999 and 2006.....14

- 1. The first reform of 1999: a “Window Dressing” 15
- 2. The second reform of 2006: an increasingly complicated system 17
- 3. The scope of comitology measures 18
- 4. Comitology committees and their legal basis..... 19
- 5. The 2006 comitology reform at a glance..... 20

Chapter IV: What stays the same: the reform of 2006 does not modify the entire comitology system.....23

Three types of comitology committees: advisory, management and regulatory..... 24

1. Advisory committees: providing an opinion to the Commission..... 25
2. Management committees: managing the Common Agricultural Policy (CAP)..... 26
3. Regulatory Committees: issuing derived regulations of key importance..... 30

Chapter V: What the 2006 reform changes: a semi legislative process33

1. A reminder of the historical evolution of comitology 35
2. Rebalancing the power between the Council and the Parliament 36
3. The reform of comitology in a nutshell..... 37
4. Screening legislation: assessing the scope of comitology and separation execution measures in two categories..... 39
5. Distinguishing quasi legislative measures from “stricto sensu” execution measures 41
6. Some concrete examples of quasi legislative measures 42
7. The new procedure: regulatory procedure with scrutiny..... 43

Chapter VI: Tools to find information on committees and expert groups.....48

Chapter VII: A total review of public affairs practice57

1. Impact of the comitology reform on Public Affairs practices..... 60
2. Monitoring & business intelligence 64